

TIME AGAIN

A monthly publication of The Fallbrook Historical Society

October 2019

Tribute Bricks Presentation

On October 6, 2019, Cecelia Njust presented engraved bricks to the Fallbrook Historical Society in memory of her late husband, Carroll, and Marion Clemmens, who dedicated years of service to the Society.

Cecelia Njust and her Daughter, Karrie Njust, with Plaque of Appreciation presented by Fallbrook Historical Society Director, Leo Romero.

Left to Right:

Cecelia Njust, Faye Clemmens Hines, Great Granddaughter Natalie Nuder, Granddaughter Christa Nuder, Karrie Njust,

Bricks engraved for Cecelia and Carroll Njust & Marion and Esther Clemmens and one for the palm tree, which was moved here from the Santa Fe Railroad station in 2000. The bricks will be inlaid into a permanent garden setting in front of the tree.

Brick engraved for Cecelia and Carroll Njust and one for the oak tree, which was moved here from Palomares House. The bricks will be inlaid into a permanent garden setting in front of the tree.

Fallbrook Historical Society

Old Fashioned Community

Barn Sale!

Saturday October 19: 9am to 4 pm

1730 South Hill Steet, Fallbrook
(corner of Rockycrest)

*Antiques
Collectibles
Tools Books
Garden Supplies
Toys
Decorations
Glassware*

All proceeds go to the Fallbrook Historical Society

Items can be donated to the Historical Society for the sale from Oct.1 to Oct.15

760-723-4125

Bring your friends!
Get a jump on holiday shopping!

Come to the Old Fashioned Community

BARN SALE!!

Start planning your Holiday Parties,
Reunions, and Celebrations at Fallbrook Historical Society facilities!

The Historic Reche Schoolhouse

The Barn

The Ford Room

Are available for rental for your occasions

Call 760-723-4125
to reserve your date

Thank you for supporting Fallbrook Historical Society.

Remember, always start at smile.amazon.com and Amazon will donate 0.5% of the price of your eligible AmazonSmile purchases to Fallbrook Historical Society!

Thanks to you, so far this year Amazon
Smile has donated over $100 to The Historical Society at no cost to our members!

Supporting: Fallbrook Historical Society ▾

HERITAGE CENTER HOURS
Museum, Pittenger House, Barn

Sundays: 1 p.m. - 4 p.m.

Thursdays: 1 p.m. - 4 p.m.
and by appointment

RECHE SCHOOLHOUSE HOURS

Second Saturdays: 1 p.m. - 4 p.m.
and by appointment