President's Memo

"As we begin the year 1988, I have ideas, hopes, plans, and unfinished projects in my head. Some of these will go well, some will meet with obstacles or problems, and some will not come about or be completed. But I feel that if I can score on some of them, my time has been well spent. WELCOME 1988!

We had some very welcome visitors in the past month. I believe that the time spent with them was very important and, of course, very enjoyable. Rosemary Pankey, Carroll and Cecelia Njust co-hosted with George and I on several occasions.

Liz Yamaguchi and I continue to work at the Van Velzer House following our FHS Board meetings on the first Tuesday of the month. We have had visitors at that time, as well as by appointment.

We are going to have a display in the glass case at the Fallbrook Library during the month of January. Be sure to go in and look it over."

editor's report

During this holiday season, we enjoy hearing from dear friends and long acquaintances. We sit back and reflect on the past - the happy times and the sad times. Christmas cards and notes seem to be a way of preserving memories.

The Fallbrook Historical Society also is a way of preserving memories for future generations. We appreciate your help, your memorabilia, and, of course, your monetary contributions.

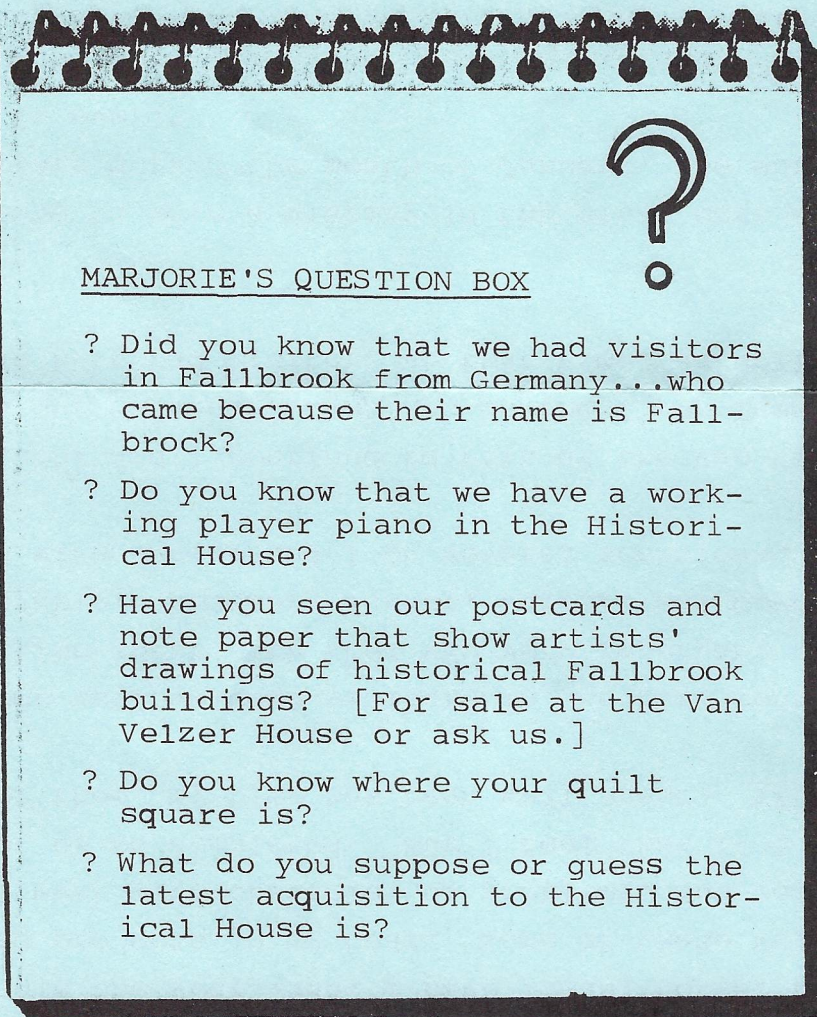

As we start a new year, please remember FHS, wherever and whenever you can. Each time you clean out a closet, remember that the FHS can use Aunt Kate's hand-crocheted dresser scarf or your grandmother's baptismal gown. And memorial gifts are a special gift to the memory of a loved one.

May 1988 bring you all the very happiest of "memories",

Dori

MARJORIE'S QUESTION BOX

- ? Did you know that we had visitors in Fallbrook from Germany...who came because their name is Fallbrook?
- ? Do you know that we have a working player piano in the Historical House?
- ? Have you seen our postcards and note paper that show artists' drawings of historical Fallbrook buildings? [For sale at the Van Velzer House or ask us.]
- ? Do you know where your quilt square is?
- ? What do you suppose or guess the latest acquisition to the Historical House is?
