FALL 1996

Published by the Fallbrook Historical Society

After a busy May and June, the months of July and August and the "hot weather" cooled down our activities. Now with Fall in the air we are busy again. School visits, tours and people keeping Liz busy with doing research and helping with visitors and information.

Cecelia reports several new members, Marion keeps the grounds in excellent condition, Bob works downstairs and has some interesting plans. Jack is doing some physical work such as moving some railroad rails, Lenon writes letters, Ila keeps finances straight and does a lot of paper work with new items that have been donated. Grayce does research, Margaret is working on a docent training afternoon. Dick, with the help of Chris, keeps the staffing up to our needs. Garth moves new acquisitions, Bev helps plan some goodies. Who did I leave out? Peggy keeps up with the news items and reminders in the papers and Liz mans the Historical Museum and tries to keep ahead of the paper work. I have done some letters, forms and phone calls to try to bring in some money. Marjorie Yackey
